

Resume

Mr. Chandra Prasad Dhakal Chairman, Dream Hills Limited

Mr. Chandra Prasad Dhakal is a visionary business leader whose strategic foresight has profoundly transformed Nepal's economic, financial, and tourism landscape. Expanding his entrepreneurial vision into tourism and infrastructure, he has guided Dream Hills Limited to emerge as a dynamic leader in Nepal's tourism and mobility sector.

Under his leadership, Dream Hills has successfully invested in, developed, and operates three landmark cable car and hospitality destinations—Chandragiri Hills (Bagmati Province), Maulakalika Cable Car (Gandaki Province), and Lumbini Cable Car (Lumbini Province). These projects have significantly improved accessibility, stimulated tourism growth, and contributed to regional and national economic development.

Currently, Dream Hills is developing several major initiatives, including Jalapa Devi Cable Car (Sudurpaschim Province), Pathivara Cable Car (Koshi Province), and Sikles Cable Car (Gandaki Province). These projects reflect the company's commitment to world-class, sustainable tourism and mobility infrastructure, with a long-term vision to expand across South Asia and beyond.

In addition, Mr. Dhakal is the Founding Chairman of Nepal Development Public Limited, a special investment vehicle mobilizing public-private resources for strategic, high-impact projects of national importance.

Beyond Dream Hills, Mr. Dhakal's leadership has been equally transformative in the financial sector. Through IME Group, he revolutionized Nepal's remittance industry, enabling widespread financial inclusion, even in the country's most remote regions. He is the Founder of IME Limited, Nepal's first remittance company, which pioneered formal cross-border remittance services and laid the foundation for a modern, regulated remittance ecosystem in Nepal. As Chairman of Global IME Bank, he successfully led the merger and acquisition of five commercial banks, ten development banks, and six finance institutions, creating the largest commercial bank in Nepal.

A committed philanthropist, Mr. Dhakal actively contributes to social development through the IME Foundation, supporting initiatives in education, healthcare, and community upliftment.

His exceptional contributions have been recognized through numerous prestigious honors, including Sukritimaya Rastradeep, Prabal Janasewashree (Fourth), Gorkha Dakshin Bahu IV, and multiple Commercially Important Person (CIP) Awards.

In addition to his corporate and philanthropic roles, Mr. Dhakal serves as the President of the Federation of Nepalese Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FNCCI), where he plays a pivotal role in strengthening Nepal's private sector, advancing economic diplomacy, and promoting sustainable national economic growth.
